How do I wash my hands properly?

Washing your hands properly takes about as long as singing 'Happy Birthday' twice, using the images below.

- Wet hands with water
- Apply enough soap to cover all hand surfaces
- Rub hands palm to palm
- Right palm over left dorsum with interlaced fingers and vice versa
- Palm to palm with fingers interlaced
- Backs of fingers to opposing palms with fingers interlocked
- Rotational rubbing of left thumb clasped in right palm and vice versa
- Rotational rubbing, backwards and forwards with clasped fingers of right hand in left palm and vice versa
- Rinse hands with water
- Dry hands thoroughly with a single use towel
- Use towel to turn off tap
- Hands are now safe

Order of Service

We gather together as people from diverse communities and many shores. We recognise that for millennia God has given stewardship of the land upon which we meet to the First Nations Peoples of this country. We thank them for their care of the land and pay our respects to the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation, and their elders both past, present and emerging.

Church Directory

A 2020 church directory is about to be produced. There is a draft version in the Gallery, so if any of your details have changed (or you're not on the list and would like to be!) please update it accordingly. This Sunday is the last opportunity to make changes or additions.

Pews for sale

We have three pews which have been sitting in the upper education building for many years which are needing a new home. Australian hardwood with reversible backs. If anybody from the congregation would like to purchase one before we offer them for sale to the public, please let Eddie know this week.

WAR ON WASTE:

GO NAKED! When shopping, look for products with minimal to no packaging or at least packaging made from recycled items. That means buying loose fruit and vegetables not those wrapped in plastic. (And be sure to recycle or reuse packaging)

Our Leadership

In addition to the Pastoral Team, our church leadership includes the Ministry Reference Group. Chair of the MRG, appointed by the Church is:
